

China's Talent Program and U.S. Research Discrimination

On July 20, Asia Society hosted a webcast on China's Talent Program and US Research Discrimination. Professors Frank Wu and David Zweig were the featured speakers. Professor Wu traced the history of racial profiling and its harm to the U.S., including the current criminalization of researchers, as well as shifting and double standards.

Professor Zweig provided the historical background of China's talent programs and statistical analysis of its results. In addition, he recommended specific actions to both the U.S. and Chinese governments. Some of his ideas parallel Professor Margaret Lewis's five recommended actions presented in the July 6 APA Justice meeting.

Read more at: <https://bit.ly/2WDZImC>.

Ad Council Town Hall

On July 21, The Ad Council will host a town hall meeting to launch a new public service announcement fighting anti-Asian American racism. This is a joint collaboration between the Asian American Advertising Federation and the ANA Educational Foundation. The objective is to share key initiatives the Asian American marketing + advertising industry is driving to tackle the anti-Asian bias impacting the community.

Read more at <https://bit.ly/2WDZImC>.

2020 Census

On July 17, Reuters reported that "President Donald Trump is expected to soon issue an executive order that would ban undocumented immigrants from being included in the 2020 census count of every person living in the United States."

On July 20, the self-response rate to the 2020 Census is 62.2%.

Read more at <http://bit.ly/2tVg63w>.

Copyright © 2021 APA Justice, All rights reserved.

You are receiving this email because you opted in or have expressed interest.

Our mailing address is:

APA Justice
P.O. Box 7
McLean, VA 22101-0007

Add us to your address book

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

We do not share, sell, rent or trade any of your information with third parties unless you provide explicit consent. Read our Privacy Policy here.