- Sarina Neote, Science Policy Manager, American Society for Biochemistry and Molecular Biology (ASBMB)
- Xiaoxing Xi 郗小星, Laura H. Carnell Professor of Physics, Temple University; American Physical Society 2020 Andrei Sakharov Prize recipient

Registration for the webinar will begin after Thanksgiving.

Presidential Transition

On November 21, 2020, members of the Congressional Asian Pacific American Caucus (CAPAC) sent a letter to President-elect Joe Biden urging him to follow the example of previous Administrations, including both Presidents Obama and Trump, by including highly qualified Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders (AAPI) in his cabinet.

Every presidential administration has approximately 4,000 non-career positions across the federal government to fill.

As part of their Resume Bank Webinar Series, Asian Pacific American Institute of Congressional Studies (APAICS) and the National Council of Asian Pacific Americans (NCAPA) are working to ensure any administration has the widest pool of qualified, diverse public servants to choose from and Asian American and Pacific Islanders (AAPIs) are historically underrepresented in public service including as federal appointees.

A webinar will be held on Monday, November 23rd at 1:00 PM ET when previous AAPI political appointees Grace Choi (State), Namrata Mujumdar (Treasury), Chris Chan (SBA), and Yvonne Hsu (HUD) will talk about about their appointee process, what to expect, how to prepare, and where to start.

Happy and Healthy Thanksgiving!
